

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is anti democratic, hypocritical, and not in the best interest of the American People. After all, if Sinclair refused to honor our fallen soldiers by showing the special dedicated to them because it would be "political", why should OUR airwaves be used to pre-empt regular programming to show a clearly biased political program?

Media consolidation only serves oligarchic interests, not that of the public who owns the airwaves.

We respectfully request that you as the FCC re-examine your position on media ownership rules and focus more energy on serving the public good in this way, rather than by fining stations for "wardrobe malfunctions." Thank you kindly for your time.
